

Confianzys Consulting Partners with Blackblot to Deliver High-Tech Product Management Training & Consulting Services in India

Indian Hi-tech companies now have a trusted training partner for Product Management within its shores. Confianzys Consulting ties up with Blackblot, a global leader in Product Management Training.

Bangalore, India (PRWEB) December 11, 2009 -- Confianzys Consulting, an independent consulting firm specializing in product management has today announced a strategic partnership with Blackblot – Product Management Expertise™, a provider of product management tools, training, and consulting services for high-tech companies. Under the terms of the agreement, Confianzys has been granted a license to deliver training using Blackblot's proprietary courseware and resell the Blackblot Product Manager's Toolkit™ professional product management template collection.

“Indian product companies can greatly improve their chances of marketplace success by adopting product management best practice tools and methodologies. Given the projected growth trajectory for Indian software companies, we constantly experience an overwhelming need for proven methodologies that will allow technology product companies to boost productivity and efficiency.” said Mr. N.P.Menon, Founder & CEO of Confianzys Consulting. “By working with Blackblot we can now provide India's high-tech companies with practical world-class product management training and tools, specifically designed for the technology industry.”

Gabriel Steinhardt, Blackblot's Managing Director added, “This new partnership will facilitate the increased exchange of knowledge and expertise that Indian technology companies could benefit from and further strengthen Blackblot's activities in the Asia Pacific region. Collaborations in knowledge, education, and innovation such as this are vital to global economies and will likely have transcending effects beyond the partnering companies.”
