1. Introduction
   1.1. Document Objective
       This document describes the process of initiating a deliverable sign-off. A sign-off is a means of securing acceptance and commitment to a project phase or deliverable.

2. Overview
   2.1. Section Objective
       This section describes the scope and use guidelines for a deliverable sign-off.

   2.2. Deliverable Sign-off Goal
       The main goal of a deliverable sign-off is to remove any ambiguity on whether or not deliverables (such as documents or decisions) have been officially approved for release, and to bring closure to specific project stages. Closure of one stage of a project is commonly the signal to begin the subsequent stage.

   2.3. Deliverable Sign-off Use Guidelines
       - Deliverable sign-offs are used when there is a need to secure the acceptance of a certain important deliverable and handoff.
       - Deliverable sign-offs make it harder for individuals to reverse their decisions or reopen them for additional discussion.
       - Do not overuse deliverable sign-off documents. Use discretion and apply a sign-off ONLY to important deliverables.

3. Initiating a Sign-off
   3.1. Section Objective
       This section describes the structure of a deliverable sign-off message via email.

   <Comment: Deliverable sign-off is commonly initiated via email, although there are other methods including paper documents. This section describes how to initiate a deliverable sign-off using Microsoft Outlook.>

   3.2. Sign-off Email Message Structure
       - The subject line of the email message must refer to what deliverable the addressees are being asked to sign-off.
       - The body of the message will contain the following:
         - Reference to the project and product.
         - Purpose of the specific sign-off email being sent.
         - Names and teams of the individuals signing-off.
         - Actions being requested of the individuals who are signing-off.
         - Description of the deliverable or decision being signed-off, including a listing of what has been reviewed (optional).
         - Statement concerning how further changes might be handled once the sign-off has been signed.
         - Statement of what will be done and considered if individuals do not respond in the allotted time period.
